

BEST OF MASCC SINGAPORE 2021

LIVING AND THRIVING THROUGH CANCER – BEST PRACTICES FOR SUPPORTIVE CARE

Join us at this year's Best of MASCC Singapore 2021 for the latest updates on best practices in cancer supportive care! The symposium will feature international and local speakers, who will be sharing their valuable experiences, expertise, and insights on interdisciplinary supportive care, as well as self-management in cancer. Registration is free!

KEYNOTE LECTURES

1

SUPPORTIVE CARE – WHAT DO WE MEAN?

Prof Andrew Davies

Professor of Palliative Medicine
Trinity College Dublin, University College Dublin, Our Lady's Hospice Dublin, Ireland
President, Multinational Association of Supportive Care in Cancer

2

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE ROLE OF NURSES IN PROVIDING SUPPORTIVE CANCER CARE OVER THE PAST 40 YEARS

Prof Patsy Yates

Distinguished Professor
Executive Dean, Faculty of Health
Director, Centre for Healthcare Transformation
Queensland University of Technology, Australia

VIRTUAL
Conference

11 DEC
2021

Saturday,
9AM-2PM

INTERDISCIPLINARY SUPPORTIVE CARE

1

CANCER PRE-HABILITATION MODEL OF CARE – THE CHANGI GENERAL HOSPITAL EXPERIENCE

Clin Asst Prof Tay San San

Chief & Senior Consultant
Department of Rehabilitation Medicine
Changi General Hospital, Singapore

Clin Asst Prof Kwok Kah Meng

Consultant
Department of Rehabilitation Medicine
Changi General Hospital, Singapore

2

CANCER REHABILITATION IN SURVIVORSHIP – THE MULTIDISCIPLINARY APPROACH

Dr Jong Sze Chin

Associate Consultant
Rehabilitation Medicine
National University Hospital, Alexandra Hospital, Ng Teng Fong General Hospital, Singapore

3

BONE HEALTH IN THE CANCER CONTINUUM – FOCUS ON BONE METASTASES

Dr Daniel Quah

Senior Consultant
Division of Radiation Oncology & Division of Supportive & Palliative Care
National Cancer Centre Singapore

4

STRATEGIES IN MANAGING CHEMOTHERAPY-INDUCED PERIPHERAL NEUROPATHY – TRADITIONAL CHINESE MEDICINE VS. WESTERN MEDICINE

Clin Asst Prof Mothi Babu Ramalingam

Consultant
Department of Rehabilitation Medicine
Singapore General Hospital

Mr William Peh

Assistant COO, Principal Medical Officer
TCMPB Registered Physician
Singapore Chung Hwa Medical Institution

5

ROLE OF THE CARDIOLOGIST IN CANCER SUPPORTIVE CARE – CARDIOTOXICITY IN THE CLINICAL AND RESEARCH SETTING

Clin Asst Prof Ng Choon Ta

Consultant
Department of Cardiology
National Heart Centre Singapore

SELF-MANAGEMENT IN CANCER

1

IMPLEMENTING SELF-MANAGEMENT IN CANCER CARE – THE KNOWNS, THE UNKNOWN AND THE UNKNOWN UNKNOWN

Dr Phebe Si

Principal Clinical Pharmacist
Oncology Pharmacy
National Cancer Centre Singapore

2

WHAT DOES IT TAKE TO SELF-MANAGE – A SOCIAL WORK PERSPECTIVE

Ms Jenny Goh

Principal Medical Social Worker
Medical Social Service
Khoo Teck Puat Hospital, Yishun Health

3

IMPROVING SELF-MANAGEMENT IN THE COMMUNITY – THE ROLE OF THE ALLIED HEALTH PROFESSIONAL

Ms Aw Hui Zhen

Senior Physiotherapist
Cancer Rehabilitation Services
Singapore Cancer Society

REGISTER

CME/CPE points pending

Organised by

Endorsed by

Sponsored by

